MISCELLANEOUS.

"German Syrup"

The majority of well-read physicians now believe that Consumption is a germ disease. In other words, instead of being in the constitution itself it is caused by innumerable small creatures living in the lungs having no business there and eating them away as caterpillars do the leaves of trees.

A Germ Disease. The phlegm that is coughed up is those parts of the lungs which have been gnawed off and destroyed. These little bacilli, as the germs are called, are too small to be seen with the naked eye, but they are very much alive just the same, and enter the body in our food, in the air we breathe, and through the pores of the skin. Thence they get into the blood and finally arrive at the lungs where they fasten and increase with frightful rapidity. Then German Syrup comes in, loosens them, kills them, expells them, heals the places they leave, and so nourish and soothe that, in a short time consumptives become germ-proof and well. ®

Americans Won't Learn Trades.

Skillful stone carvers—not sculptors, but the men who actually cut the figures and decorations on the facades or interiors of buildings with mallet and chisel—often receive from four to six dollars a day in New York and Boston. Modelers for jewelers and makers of designs for wall paper often receive more than that. In Boston and New York good stone carvers receive higher pay than reporters on newspapers, clerks in business houses or male school teachers of the lower grades.

But who are these skilled stone carvers and wood carvers, makers of designs for wall paper, modelers in clay. brass finishers and so on? They are, with some exceptions, Europeans. They have learned how to do their work in other countries, and come here to exercise their crafts.

Formerly these more artistic trades could not be learned in the United States. This is no longer the case. The industries have been established in this country to such an extent that nearly all of them may be learned by the process of apprenticeship and in the technical schools scattered through the country almost every branch of industrial art is taught.

But when one day I asked a large employer of skilled stone carvers how many of his men were American born he answered, "Not one in ten is American born."—J. E. Chamberlin in Youth's Companion.

Improved Envelope Folding Machine.

A new envelope folding machine possesses several novel features, including the use of boxed or inside cams, which obviate the necessity for springs in producing the different movements of the mechanicism, and thus increase the smoothness of working and durability of the apparatus. By means of an ingenious adjustable appliance, the envelopes have any desired amount of bulk or roundness of the edges imparted to them. This operation makes the envelope more convenient for use and also adds to its strength by lessening the liability to split at the edges.

After folding, the envelopes are transferred to wired divisions on the periphery of a revolving wheel at the rear of the machine, where they are dried by currents of hot or cold air forced through perforators in pipes coiled at the sides of the wheel. The envelopes are afterward dropped into a race and gradually advanced to a table where an attendant is waiting to band them. All the operations, from the placing of the blanks to the receipt of the finished envelope, are entirely automatic, and a single machine is capable of making from 30,000 to 40,000 envelopes per day.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Natural Gas in Iron Working.

Among the more recent improvements in the manufacture of iron and steel, the use of gaseous fuel stands conspicuous. The idea of first converting the fuel into a combustible gas, and conveying this to the point where heat was required and there igniting it, is a very old one, and, in one form or another, it has been employed for over a thousand years, but it is only within the present century that the manifold advantages of gas as a metallurgical fuel have become fully recognized by the iron and steel workers of the world. The early gas furnaces used in Silesia, Sweden, and other European countries were but enlarged modifications of Geber's Tower of Athanor, and, although they were a great improvement on the furnaces in which solid fuel was burned on a grate, yet they were not able to produce a temperature sufficiently high and controllable to satisfy the demands of the rapidly developing iron and steel industries.—Popular Science Monthly.

Deaf Mutes.

F. G. Jefferson, of Toronto, Canada, thus writes to The Mail of that city: "The following case has come under my notice: A farmer married his cousin, and both possessed all their faculties, and they have nine children, of whom five daughters were born deaf mutes. Three of these daughters married speaking and hearing husbands. The first one has three deaf mute children out of five, the second one has two deaf mute children out of three and the third has one deaf mute child out of two. This proves that Professor Bell, of Washington, United States, has made a mistake by publishing largely that the intermarriages of deaf mutes bring a deaf mute race, when the fact is that deaf mute children proceed from married cousins possessing all their faculties. In the Belleville deaf mute school there are 240 pupils, and not one of them has deaf mute parents. There are many other similar cases in England and the States."

Similarity in Indian Language.

Whence came the Indian? There is no standard of appeal and the question could not be decided; but there is a great deal of error in the orthography and signification as given in the Indian words. Amicolola should be Awmiercolola. Awmer means salt. The two words water and salt in Cherokee are very much alike—awmier and awmer. They seldom name after a person. Chattahoochee means streaked rock. At the headwaters there is a variety of white and black rocks, streaked rock.—Atlanta Constitution.

THE STATE UNIVERSITY.

The State University of Nevada, as its name implies, is an educational institution. It is supported by the proceeds of land grants and appropriations from the General Government, and is designed to give the youth of the State opportunity to acquire a good education free of charge for tuition. It was located at Reno by an Act of the Legislature, and its management is under the direction of a Board of Regents consisting of five members, three of whom were elected by the people, and all of whom are reputable citizens of the State. This Board selected a faculty comprising president, professors and tutors, each and all of whom are highly recommended as educators, and as citizens stand above reproach in the community. In addition to this faculty the War Department detailed Lieutenant Neall of the Fourth United States Cavalry to drill the students in military tactics.

There are at the University about one hundred and forty students, some of whom board and lodge at the University dormitory, while others board in town. The dormitory students are permitted by the regulations to leave the University grounds from 8:30 to 9 o'clock A. M. and from 3:30 to 5:30 P. M. The rest of the time they are under the immediate supervision of the faculty, who are responsible for their behavior, while the students who receive instruction at the University and board elsewhere pass beyond the jurisdiction of the faculty when they leave the University grounds.

The English, French and German languages, geometry, engineering, chemistry, etc., etc. are taught at the University by proficient teachers, and strict discipline is maintained in every department.

This statement of facts is due all concerned, as it has been proclaimed by the Carson Appeal that the air of Reno is filled with charges against the University students and the way in which the institution is conducted.

The behavior of the students so far as we can learn is no better nor any worse than that of young men at similar educational institutions in other parts of the country, and, in fact, the young men wearing the University uniform conduct themselves becomingly on the streets, though it cannot be expected that they will always act as sedately as church deacons.

QUESTIONS FOR ARBITRATION.

Secretary Blaine's note to the British Minister on the Behring sea fisheries has been made public and it shows that the Plumed Knight is an able diplomat. In this note he suggests some changes in the questions to be settled by arbitration and proposes the following topics:

First—What were the exclusive rights of Russia in Behring sea? Second—How far were Russian claims conceded by the British? Third—Was Behring sea included in the term Pacific ocean as used in the treaty of 1825 between Russia and Great Britain? Fourth—Did the rights of Russia pass to the United States by the treaty of 1867? Fifth—Has the United States any property rights in the seals after they have passed the three mile limit?

Should these questions be decided against the United States the following would have to be settled:

First—How far should the rights of the United States extend in order to protect the seals? Second—Is a closed season necessary? and third—Over what months and what waters should said closed season extend?

He says the United States will agree to pay damages to Canadians whose vessels have been seized, if the decision be against this country, if Great Britian will agree to pay for all the seal skins taken by British subjects if the decision is against England.

If these questions are settled there will be no further difficulty about the seal fisheries as the rights of the United States will be clearly established, and it will not assume sovereignty over Behring sea unless it has a right to.

INGALLS ENGAGED TO LECTURE.

Ex-Senator Ingalls of Kansas, who announced his intention, after the Farmers' Alliance defeated him, to settle down on a farm to raise potatoes and cabbages, has changed his mind. Major Pond, who managed Stanley's tour and sent the African explorer out of the country $100,000 richer than when he came into it, made the ex-Senator an offer of $500 a night for fifty nights. He left Atchinson on the next train for New York, where he accepted the offer and closed the contract. He is to appear in all the leading cities in the country, delivering from one to three lectures in each according to its size. He is a sarcastic speaker, and since his defeat for re-election has evinced a disposition to tell the truth about politicians and political parties, and will doubtless draw crowded houses as a lecturer.

Sidney Bell has been convicted of the murder of Samuel M. Jacobson in San Francisco. The crime was committed about 12:30 o'clock on the morning of August 17, 1890, as Jacobson was approaching the steps leading to his residence, at the corner of California and Webster streets, San Francisco. The murder was cold blooded, the object being robbery. The jury did not fix the penalty and the Judge will have no option but to sentence the prisoner to death.

The President at Salt Lake City.

Special to the Journal.

SALT LAKE, May 9.—The President and party arrived here at an early hour this morning and had a royal reception, in which all the residents joined. The city was gaily decorated. The President's party was escorted by Governor Thomas, Mayor Scott and a large delegation of citizens; the party proceeded to the Walker House and partook of a champagne breakfast. They then took places in the procession composed of troops, State guards, Grand Army and other societies. The party stopped at Liberty Park, where formal addresses of welcome were made by Governor Thomas and Mayor Scott. Responses were made by the President, Postmaster General Wanamaker and Secretary Rusk.

The President in his remarks spoke of the interest he had always taken in the Territories. He congratulated the people of Utah on the progress made in a material way, etc., and said: "You have all the elements of a great commercial and political community. The great characteristic of American institutions, the compact of our Government, is that the will of the majority expressed by legal methods at the ballot box shall be the supreme law of all our community. The purity of the ballot box are those wise provisions and that careful guardianship that shall always make expression of the will of the people fair, pure and true, is an essential thing in American life. We are a people organized upon the principle of liberty, but my good countrymen it is not license, it is liberty within and under the law. I have no discord as a public officer with men of any creed, religious or political, if they will obey the law. My oath of office, my public duty requires me to be against those who violate the law. The foundation of American life is the American home where one wife sits in single uncrowned glory. I beg to assure you that every hope you have for safety is in running on these lines of free government, on these lines of domestic and social order."

CLEAR CREEK, Utah, May 9.—The run of the Presidential train from Salt Lake over the Rio Grande Western Railway was a continuous ovation, the people at each point visited being very demonstrative in their welcome. The first stop was at a sugar factory near Lehi, where the President in addressing the crowd said: "This sugar industry you have established here is very interesting to me, and I hope is to open the way to the time when we shall have a home supply for every household." At Provo the travelers were greeted with a national salute and the children were drawn up in line. The President, Postmaster General and Secretary Rusk spoke. A cordial reception was also accorded the party at Springville.

Provisions for Chili.

Special to the Journal.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—Referring to the New York special regarding the loading of the steamer Montserrat with arms for Chili, John L. Howard, Manager of the Oregon Improvement Company, and one of the owners of the vessel, said today: "I would say that the steamer has been under an offer of charter both to J. W. Grace & Co. and J. F. Chapman & Co. of San Francisco, representatives of Flint & Co. of New York, and that Chapman had authority to charter her, but while awaiting advices respecting credits for the cargo Grace & Co. made the firm an offer and secured the steamer to carry a cargo of merchandise and produce, consisting of hay, barley, wheat, flour and potatoes. It was made the condition that no arms or munitions of war should be offered as cargo, and that her freight would be such as not to involve any risks or complications. The steamer has the right to examine every package offered and in the event of any being contrary to the conditions of the charter they will be rejected by the steamer. Her consignees are Grace & Co., and she will report to them at Callao to unload there, or at Iquique. The owners of the steamer will see to it that no arms or articles other than produce will go on board the steamer. She will begin loading May 10th and sail May 15th."

Crop Reports.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The weekly Weather Crop Bulletin says: The weather during the past week has been generally unfavorable to growing crops, owing to the unusually low temperature and the deficiency in rainfall over a greater portion of all the agricultural districts east of the Rocky Mountains. The previous rapid growth in the central valleys and northwest has been greatly interrupted by a cold wave which extended as far south as the Gulf and South Atlantic States during the week, attended by damaging frosts as far south as Tennessee and the Carolinas. While the frosts did but little damage to staple crops it is generally believed that early fruits are seriously damaged in Ohio and Central Mississippi Valley. Missouri reports in the eastern and central counties grapes greatly injured.

In California hay, strawberries and cherries are slightly damaged by rain. The other crops are vastly improved. In Oregon the weather has been beneficial but more rain is needed east of the Cascade range. Frosts did little or no damage.

The Work of an Incendiary.

Special to the Journal.

BOONE, Ia., May 9.—The fire at Manning this morning was the work of an incendiary. It broke out in the postoffice block and destroyed the hotel, postoffice, three dry goods stores, three groceries, restaurant, three saloons, jewelry store, drug store and clothing store, besides the dwellings of those living in the buildings. Very few goods were saved, a high wind causing the fire to spread rapidly. The loss exceeds $125,000, with but little insurance.

The Robert and Minnie Captured.

Special to the Journal.

LOS ANGELES, May 9.—The schooner Robert and Minnie was captured this afternoon about three miles from San Pedro by Deputy Marshall Anderson on board the tug Falcon. She made no resistance and was towed into San Pedro harbor and tied up to the wharf. The arms said to be on her had disappeared, and it is believed they have been transferred to the steamer Itata.

Crabs Are Fighters.

Crabs particularly are fighting animals; in fact, they will fight anything. I have seen a crab, in conflict with a lobster, catch the lattor over the fore part of the head, where the shell is hardest, and crush it in by one effort. And it rather bears out my idea that the claws of these creatures are particularly weapons of war; that the moment one of them receives severe injury in a claw it drops it off by voluntary amputation, severing its connection with the body at the shoulder by an act of its own will. It seems to me probable that if the claw were necessary for feeding nature would rather seek to cure an injury to it than let the animal discard it altogether.

The species of crab which is most conspicuously a fighter is the hermit crab. Its first idea of independent life is to eat a harmless whelk and occupy its shell; its next notion is to give battle to every crab of the same persuasion as itself that it comes across. Altogether hermit crabs are undoubtedly the most quarrelsome creatures in existence.—Interview in Washington Star.

Education in the Argentine.

There are two universities, one at Buenos Ayres and one at Cordoba, which together counted 993 students in 1889, and delivered 234 diplomas, including 81 doctors of law, 85 doctors of medicine, and 11 civil engineers. In the whole republic there are sixteen national colleges, with a teaching corps of 464 professors and an attendance in 1889 of 2,599 pupils. In the capital and the provinces there are thirty-five normal schools, with 12,024 pupils of both sexes, who become professors and teachers, chiefly for the primary schools.

In Buenos Ayres in 1889 there were 285 primary schools, directed by 1,571 teachers and attended by 54,509 children. In the provinces there were 2,719 primary schools, with a teaching staff of 4,532 and an attendance of 205,186. To resume, the results obtained were 3,042 primary schools, 6,103 teachers, 259,695 pupils, 2,873 primary schoolhouses in the whole republic. Of these schoolhouses 485 are the property of the nation or of the provinces and 1,888 private property.—Theodore Child, in Harper's.

Discovery of Mahogany.

In the year 1597 one of Sir Walter Raleigh's ships, in an expedition against the Azores, put in at Trinidad for repairs. The workmen used the first wood that came to hand, and it happened to be the now famous mahogany. By this accident it was first introduced into England, where it was much admired, but it did not become an article of commerce until a century later. Since then it has held first rank as a cabinet maker's wood.—Golden Days.

You May Be Lucky.

A New York statistician and financier figures that out of 20,000 men only 8,000 will die worth over $10,000, and only 3,000 who can be called rich. He says that 3,000 men lose $2,000 and upward per year, and that 2,000 men lose $10,000 each where one makes $100,000.—Detroit Free Press.

Her Poise.

Mr. Richman—Here comes Miss Stately. I so admire her poise.

Rival Belle (very slender)—How cruel you are! You shouldn't poke fun at the poor girl's poise—you mean, of course, avoirdupois.—Demarest's.

An Editor Threatened.

Special to the Journal.

GERVAIS, Or., May 9.—Editor McCollom, of the Gervais Star, has received a letter from Vancouver, Washington, signed "Vigilance Committee," calling upon him to apologize for a certain alleged insult to the United States army, through the columns of his paper. Several days ago the Star, in an editorial commented on the lynching of Hunt by the soldiers at Walla Walla, and yesterday the editorial was reprinted in the Oregonian. Among other things the Star said the act was done by a mob of low-bred and vicious solders, of which the army is and has been composed for some time. The "Committee" requests McCollom to make a full apology through the Oregonian and state that unless such an apology is forthcoming they will pay him a "nightly visit."

WHAT IS

SCROFULA

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or swellings; which causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which developes ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors;" which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can It Be CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was 22 months old till she became six years of age. Lumps formed in her neck, and one of them after growing to the size of a pigeon's egg, became a running sore for over three years. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla, when the lump and all indications of scrofula entirely disappeared, and now she seems to be a healthy child." J. S. CARLILE, Hauright, N. J.

A new sawmill is in course of construction in the mountains about a mile east of Bronco. It will be completed about June 10th, and will have a cutting capacity of about fifty thousand feet of lumber per day. A dam 350 feet long and 40 feet wide at its base is being built to make a reservoir for handling the logs, and a flume will be built to convey the lumber down the mountain to the railroad at Bronco.

We are pleased to learn that Eugene Lee has had the good fortune to "strike it rich" in the Ruby mine, Julien District, near San Diego, California, of which he is a half owner. This mine, with two other claims in which he is interested, are situated near the Stonewall mine, owned by the late Governor Waterman. One of the claims in which he is interested is supposed to be an extension of the famous Chariot mine. We hope Eugene will become a millionaire.

R. J. Jose was welcomed to his old home by many friends. The young man has grown stout, which indicates that he is at home on the stage and that singing agrees with him. He will return from Virginia City this morning, and as the minstrels are billed to appear in San Francisco to-morrow night and cannot give an entertainment here, the people will have an opportunity to hear him at Trinity Church this morning and evening. He has closed an engagement to join a first-class concert company for a season of European concerts, and will sail from New York City on the 22nd of July accompanied by Dr. Henry Lewis of Brooklyn, New, York, a brother of Dr. J. A. Dewis of Reno.

INSANELY JEALOUS.

The Cause of the Indian Tragedy at Walker River.

A few days ago news was received of a tragedy at Walker river, in which the wife of an Indian named Josephus attempted to kill her son and daughter and then committed suicide. Now a correspondent of the JOURNAL gives the following

PARTICULARS OF THE TRAGEDY.

There is intense excitement among the Indians. Josephus, the head man of the Piutes in this vicinity and Chief of the Indian police, is accused of undue intimacy with the wife of an Indian named Dick Sharp. The wife of Josephus heard of her lord's unfaithfulness, and sought revenge by scratching, biting and pulling the hair of Mrs. Dick Sharp. She brooded over the matter until she became insane from jealousy. She took her husband's gun and shot her son and beat her daughter into an insensible condition, and then committed suicide by shooting herself in the stomach. She was about thirty years of age and a recognized Indian beauty. The boy was shot through both lungs, the bullet in its exit breaking the left arm above the elbow. He will die, but the girl is recovering.

WHAT THE INDIANS SAY.

The Indians are excited and the tragedy is the sole topic of conversation among them. They say Josephus is the cause of the trouble, and the relatives of the woman want revenge and it seems as if nothing less than the scalp of the Chief of Police will satisfy them. Unless reparation is made in some other way you may expect to hear that this particular noble red man has been suddenly dispatched to the "happy hunting grounds," and the Indian Department will doubtless be elated over this evidence of the rapid strides toward civilization made by the Indians.

RAILROAD RUMORS.

The Silver State Says Reno is to be Side-Tracked.

The "Age of Railroads," according to the Silver State, suggests the advisability of abandoning the Central Pacific track over the Sierra Nevada between the lines of deep snow on the West and East, and of making a detour of the main line at Wadsworth and crossing the mountains at Beckwith Pass.

The Silver State humorist understands that the present line will be maintained from Sacramento up the western slope of the mountain, and from Reno to Verdi on the eastern slope. The new road will pass to the north of Reno some eight or ten miles. The narrow-gauge road from Reno will furnish the connecting link between that thriving village and the new route at Peavine, or it is possible that the Reno Street Railway Company will open an electric motor line to connect with the new road at some point East of Peavine, and thus make Reno a competitive point, which is so essential to the growth and prosperity of a community. The narrow-gauge and motor line in competition will add greatly to Reno's commercial importance.

ASSESSING RAILROADS.

Elko Commissioners Direct the Assessor to do it.

The Board of Commissioners of Elko county have adopted the following:

WHEREAS, Information has come to the Board that certain counties in the State propose to test the constitutionality of the Act creating a State Board of Assessors and Equalization, and,

WHEREAS, It is expedient that such action be taken by our County Assessor in the matter of assessing railroad property that nothing may be lost in the event of such Act being declared unconstitutional, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the County Assessor of Elko county be, and is hereby directed to assess all railroad property in this county, including roadway, road-bed and track, and that such assessment be made according to the valuation placed upon such property during the year 1890 as nearly as may be possible.

Profits of the May Day Social.

The receipts were: For tickets, cash at door, lemonade booth, ice cream booth and one dollar from J. C. Hagerman, $273 85. Total expenses, $96 55; net proceeds, $177 20.

This is the largest sum that has ever been realized here from a school entertainment. About $50 is to be used for song books and for replenishing the library and the remainder for providing philosophical and chemical apparatus, of which the High School is sadly in need, as it has, at present, no apparatus for illustrating the laws and principles of physics. No adequate work can be done in the physical sciences without proper illustrative apparatus. Another entertainment or two, of the character just given, would enable the teachers to furnish the High School fairly well in the particulars named. In the meantime the JOURNAL says to teachers and pupils—well done.

For One Day Only.

The Palace Dry Goods and Carpet House will sell on Monday, May 11th,

Fifty pieces one yard wide bleached Lonsdale finished muslin at 12 yards for $1.

Thirty pieces white checked nainsook at 16 yards for $1.

Ladies should avail themselves of such a splendid opportunity.

Loyal Legion Entertainment.

The Loyal Legion will give a free entertainment at the M. E. Church Monday evening, May 11th, at 7:30 o'clock. A good programme, consisting of songs and recitations, will be rendered by the children.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

CARD OF THANKS.

From the Teachers and Pupils of the High School.

The pupils and teachers of the Reno High School, fully appreciating the value of the services rendered them by those not of the school itself, and feeling that the success of their recent entertainment was largely due to such aid, wish to publicly acknowledge this fact and to return their most grateful thanks to all who assisted them; to the merchants for their generous donations, to the teachers of the other departments who worked with a hearty good will in various ways, to the ladies of the Relief Corps who gave the use of their flags, bunting, etc. for decorating the hall, to the ladies who kindly furnished cake and materials for ice cream, to Mrs. L. J. Flint, who took upon herself the entire labor of making the same, and succeeded so well that all who ate, like Oliver, called for more; and, in fact, to all who in any way assisted, the most hearty and appreciative thanks are due.

It is but simple justice to state of the citizens of Reno that in all matters connected with the schools they have ever shown themselves extremely liberal and public-spirited. They no doubt appreciate the fact that by helping the schools they help themselves indirectly. Still they are deserving of great credit for their generosity thus shown.

In the past two years alone over six hundred dollars have been realized from entertainments given by the public schools, including this recent May-day social. By this means an expensive and excellent piano has been purchased and fully paid for, and the library has been replenished from time to time with needed books. The handsome sum now realized will be put to equally good use and in such ways that the greatest possible benefit may be derived from it. So that all those who assisted may feel that it was done in a good cause, for what benefits the rising generation benefits all.

THE TEACHERS AND PUPILS OF THE RENO HIGH SCHOOL.

Religious Services.

Methodist Episcopal Church—Preaching at 11 A. M. and 7:15 P. M. by the pastor. Evening subject: "Hiding behind the stuff." Sunday School at 12 M. Epworth League at 6:15 P. M. All are heartily invited.

REV. F. V. FISHER, Pastor.

Services at the Baptist Church at the usual hours. Morning at 11 A. M. Evening at 7:30 P. M. Sunday School at 12:15. Everybody made welcome.

Trinity Church—Sunday after Ascension Day, May 10. Morning prayer and sermon at 11 A. M. Sunday School at 12:30 P. M. Evensong without sermon at 7.30 P. M. Dickie Jose will sing at both morning and evening service.

Proceedings under the writ of certiorari were held in the District Court yesterday. The points involved are as to the legality of the action of the Board in purchasing park sites without having the property appraised and its value fixed by commissioners appointed by the Judge. District Attorney Julien applied for the writ, which was granted, and Baker & Wines appeared for the Commissioners. Oral arguments have been made and briefs are to be submitted.

The Alta is exposing the hypocrisy and inconsistency of the committee which prepared the wine list for the Presidential banquet in San Francisco. The great "protectors of home industry" gave place and mention to all the leading brands of French champagne, and allowed no brand of California wines to appear on the list.

Canton Nevada, No. 3, Attention.

You are hereby ordered to meet at your hall to-day (Sunday) at 2 o'clock. Business of importance. F. C. UPDYKE, Clerk.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited, and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring-time or, in fact, at any time, and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

Judge Hawley Will Hold Court in Carson.

Special to the Journal.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—Judge Thomas P. Hawley, acting United States Circuit Judge during the absence of Judge Lorenzo Sawyer, left this afternoon for Carson, Nevada, to hold a brief session of the United States District Court for the district of Nevada.

A man who has practiced medicine for 40 years, ought to know salt from sugar; read what he says:

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 10, 1887.

Messrs. F. J. Cheney & Co.—Gentlemen;—I have been in the general practice of medicine for most 40 years, and would say that in a l my practice and experience have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by you. Have prescribed it a great many times and its effect is wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of Catarrh that it would not cure, if they would take it according to directions. Yours truly,

L. L. GORSUCH, M. D.,
Office, 215 Summit St,

We will give $100 for any case of catarrh that cannot be cured with Hall's Catarrh Cure. Taken internally.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE of Nevada, in and for Washoe county. The State of Nevada sends to Mary C. Carroll, greeting. You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant, by Wm. H. Carroll as plaintiff, in the District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this summons (exclusive of day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said District, and in all other cases forty days, or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The action is brought to recover a judgment and decree of divorce, forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between you, the said Mary C. Carroll, and the said William H Carroll, and decreeing that there is no community property to be adjudicated and that the property of which he is now owner is his own separate property.

The said action is brought on the ground of desertion of him on your part for a period of more than one year last past prior to the commencement of this action All of which will more fully appear from the complaint which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court, at Reno, in said county, and to which you are especially referred. And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand at Reno, this 23d day of March, A. D. 1891.

H. A. WALDO,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

HONESTY AND MEMORY.

IT LOOKED AS THOUGH THE MAN WAS GUILTY OF A CRIME.

A Case Which Shows That Circumstantial Evidence Is Not Always Conclusive Proof of Guilt—A Woman Makes Up in Forbearance Her Loss of Memory.

Two weeks ago a family of two persons—husband and wife—rented a small apartment up town and proceeded to furnish it. The carpets were supplied and laid by a reputable house. Something about one of them was unsatisfactory, and a man was sent to investigate. The wife—Mrs. L.—was on her way out of the building to post a letter when she encountered him. Recognizing him, she said: "Here is the key; I will be back in five minutes. Go up and see what can be done."

No sooner had she got on the street when she thought suddenly of a roll of bills, nearly $100, which she had carelessly left in a glove box on her dressing table. There was nobody in the apartment, as no servant had yet been engaged, and she was tempted to return at once to look after the money. "But surely," she thought, "that man is honest; I need have no fear," and she hurried on.

In less than ten minutes she was back, and met the carpet man just outside her door. He stopped and spoke with her concerning the troublesome carpet, and promised a speedy remedy. They separated and she entered her apartment. Almost mechanically she went to her dressing table and raised the lid of the glove box. The money was not there.

DAMAGING EVIDENCE.

Without delaying an instant she hurried into the hall and down the stairs, overtaking the carpet man as he had reached the street.

"Will you come back a moment, please?" she said.

He did so at once. When they were again in the apartment she faced him.

"A curious thing has happened. When I went out this morning I left a roll of bills—$90—in that box over there. It is gone now."

The man did not seem to understand for a moment. "Well," he said unmeaningly.

"Well," repeated Mrs. L., "there was nobody in the apartment but"——

The man interrupted her. "God, madam," he said earnestly as the significance of her words dawned upon him, "you don't think I took your money?"

"I don't know what to think," replied Mrs. L.; "the money was there and now it isn't."

"But I'm an honest man," he went on. "I've got a little girl. Do you think I'd steal? Why, I've been eight years with So-and-so. They know my character. Look around for your money. Perhaps your husband took it."

"That is possible," said Mrs. L. "Will you come with me to his office and find out?"

He acquiesced and the journey down town was made. Mr. L. had not taken the money. The man was greatly disturbed.

"You can search me," he said. "There's my own money," producing a small wad, "left from my last week's wages. I haven't another cent about me." And he turned his pockets inside out.

Mr. L. was impressed with the man's appearance and earnestness. Mrs. L. was puzzled and her money was gone.

A CASE OF POOR MEMORY.

However, nothing further was done at the time, and the man went back to his work asking only that he and not they report the occurrence at the carpet dealer's shop. Mrs. L. went home and ransacked drawers and boxes, moved furniture, and opened trunks in a vain search for the money. Several days passed, when, on going to an upper shelf in a wardrobe, Mrs. L.'s attention was attracted to a towel pinned in a roll. What was that? she wondered. She took it down and opened it. Inside was a discarded wallet, and in the wallet the missing bills.

And they had been put there by Mrs. L. herself. She recalled, on seeing them, that the night before the man came she had thought, just before going to bed, that it was careless, with so many persons coming and going in the course of the settling process, to leave money loose in a box on the table, and she had elaborately thought out this hiding place. Then she had slept, and by morning had lost all recollection of what she had done.

It was late Saturday afternoon when she found the money, and storming, but it must be related to Mrs. L.'s credit that she did what she could. She sent a dispatch to the man in care of his firm stating that the money was found. On Monday she went to the shop and explained the matter to the superintendent, asking that the man be asked to come to see her. He did so and received an apology for the imputation on his honesty.

Then Mrs. L. tried to reimburse him for his "loss of time;" this he would not permit. The money was found—that was all he wanted. So it all ended happily. But the story may be taken as forcibly illustrating the uncertain value of two things—a woman's memory and circumstantial evidence.—Her Point of View in New York Times.

Miraculous.

"Bre'er Johnsing, does yo' b'lieve in miracles?"

"Does I b'lieve in miracles? Suttenly I does. Didn't I jest have one of 'em down at my house?"

"You? A miracle down at your house?"

"Yes, sah; dat's what I said. Dey was jes' fouh chickens in my coop when I went to bed las' night, an' when I woked up dis mornin'"——

"Dey was eight?"

"Eight? No, yo' fool man! Dey wasn't none. Done stole."

"Humph! Wha's de miracle?"

"De coop was lef'."—Judge.

A Clear Head.

"I tell you, laugh as you will, Mr. Softey has a clear head."
